

centre for the environmental humanities in rostock

UNIVERSITÄT ROSTOCK
WISSEN – KULTUR – TRANSFORMATION
WKT

MARE BALTICUM FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

Why Modes Matter: Thinking about Environmental Storytelling with Comedy

Workshop moderated by Dr. Linda Heß (University of Augsburg) in cooperation with Prof. Kylie Crane (Cultural Studies, University of Rostock)

Using comedic modes as a primary case study, this workshop explores how specific narrative forms shape, mirror, or disrupt standard climate discourse and our views of the environment.

for Ph.D students & post-doctoral researchers interested in the environmental humanities + students of the MA “Culture, Ecology, Change”

7 Oct: 10-17:30
8 Oct: 10-13:30

Room 116
Universitätsplatz 3

Universität
Rostock

Traditio et Innovatio